Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 2, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Regarding claim 1, two different embodiments are claimed in the single claim. The two different embodiments claimed in claim 1 are patentably distinct and they cannot be claimed in a single claim. It appears that applicant has tried to claim two different species in a single claim. It is suggested that applicant claim each one the species in a separate claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 7-9 are allowed. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fails to teach that the forward plate guide is pivotable and a hinge pin located along a pivot axis of the hinge and is adjustable by an eccentric mounting in order to set a distance between the rearward and the forward saw blade guides for matching different thickness of the saw blade as set forth in claim 7.

Comment

4. Regarding claims 1, 2, and 4, the prior art does not teach a plurality of interchangeable plates having different spacing between the contact surfaces and the drive shaft or the contact surfaces and the drive shaft. The prior art also does not teach that the forward blade guide is pivotable away from the saw blade and the contact surface of the at least one of the saw blade guides is installed on a mounting that is pivotable in a direction parallel to the plane of the saw blade as set forth in claim 1.

However, in view of the issues under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, the allowability of the claimed subject matter cannot be indicated at this time.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
